DAILY SENTINEL.

From the Lafayette County Herald.

An Evening with Percival, the Poet.

One evening in the fall of 1853, we called upon business in one of the principal stores in our village, and saw an elderly looking man, clad in a common miner's garb, stained with ochre, and wearing an old glazed cap, who was detailing to a group of listeners the characteristics of several of the diggings in the neighborhood which he had been examining through the day. As we were listening to his descriptions of crevices, openings, &c., an old friend, William Warner, Esq., of the American Mining Co. [illegible] Grant County, who formerly filled the [illegible] to the University of Vermont, [illegible] informed us that the old gentleman, [illegible] familiarity with mining we supposed to be a practical miner, was no less than James G. Percival, the poet; our friend, much to our discomfiture (though we had scribbled some verses in our college days) introduced us to the poet as [illegible] bard.

Dr. Percival's manners were so affable and familiar, that we soon engaged in a pleasant conversation; in the course of which we informed him that we had in our possession thirty quarto volumes of Voltaire's works in the original French, brought to this country some forty or fifty years ago, by the celebrated Alexander Hamilton; upon his expressing a desire to see them, we invited him home, whither he accompanied us. Over the old time-worn pages of Voltaire, the eye of the old poet gazed with kindling enthusiasm, the old plates, which in their time were masterpieces of art were to him a feast, and the classic beauty of the Henriade and some of the plays, were skilfully brought out by so accomplished a linguist and poet as Percival. He pursued with apparent satisfaction some of the literary essays of Voltaire, but his eye gleamed with new fire as he discovered upon a fly leaf of one of the volumes the autograph of the old statesman Hamilton.

The conversation then became general, upon the subject of the popular literature of the day, with which he had assured us he had not of late years kept pace. We asked his opinion of Longfellow, and handed him the "Golden Legend;" he pronounced it a plagiarism from beginning to end, and named the bards of the middle age from whom it had been stolen—as a poet he had but a poor opinion of Longfellow, and believed him to be devoid of originality, and that he plagiarized Minnesingers and Scandinavian Sagas and won his popularity by catering to a perverted popular taste, "and to this," said the old poet, "I never could bring myself; after pure classical models have I fashioned my verse, and when I found that the popular mind craved that which was unnatural, eccentric and distorted, I left the field of poetry and have abandoned it to [illegible] thirty years."

We then presented to his notice an old copy of Cheever's common place book of American Poetry, which contained a large number of pieces purporting to be from the pen of Percival.— These he perused and two or three of them he disclaimed ever having written, among these was "The grave of the Indian Chief," credited to him, and commencing,

"They laid the corse of the wild and [illegible]
On the sweet fresh earth of the new day [illegible],
On the gentle hill where wild flowers [illegible]
And flowers and grass were flourishing

They laid within the peaceful bed,
Close by the Indian chieftain's head
His bow and arrows, and they said
That he had found new hunting grounds."

This piece he wondered that any one should have attributed to him, as it was not written in his style, and did not conform to his ideas of the Indian.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

It will be seen from our telegraphic despatches that the Democratic National Convention yesterday, made choice of JAMES BUCHANAN, of Pennsylvania, as their candidate for President, and J. P. BRECKENRIDGE, of Kentucky, for Vice-President. The ticket is a very respectable one.

The brief synopsis of the news by the Niagara will be found under the telegraphic head. The intelligence is unimportant.

The spirit of indignation kindled by the outrage at Washington, continues to blaze higher, all over the Free States. We have accounts of gatherings, in all quarters, to denounce the ruffianly assaults upon Senator Sumner and the atrocities in Kansas.

The South, by its presses and public men, is sustaining and applauding Brooks, and encouraging the "Border Ruffians" to persist in their effort to force Slavery upon Kansas.

The New Hampshire Legislature has met and organized by the choice of officers opposed to Pierce and Nebraska.

There is news from Kansas which although from pro-Slavery sources, and giving the most extravagant accounts, indicates that the Free-State men in some parts of the Territory are making head against the invaders.

The Cincinnati Convention.

The Convention of the Sham Democracy, now in session at Cincinnati, so far completed their labors yesterday as to nominate their candidates for President and Vice President. JAMES BUCHANAN, of Pennsylvania, is their nominee for the first office and J. P. BRECKENRIDGE, of Kentucky, for the second. PIERCE and DOUGLAS were coolly thrown overboard to lighten ship and save the party, if possible, from being wrecked by the storm which the Kansas-Nebraska Iniquity has evoked. It is not to be denied that Mr. BUCHANAN is personally a vast improvement upon either of his prominent competitors. But it may well be doubted whether the platform upon which he will be required to take his stand will not render his nomination just as unacceptable to the friends of Freedom, Humanity and Right, as that of either PIERCE or DOUGLAS.

The Forthcoming Democratic Platform.

The Cincinnati correspondent of the "official" News, writing under date of the 3d instant, says:

> The nominee of the Convention is sure to be the next President of these United States, and whoever that lucky man may be, he will be elected upon the Kansas and Nebraska Platform.

Undoubtedly he will be nominated on that platform, for the South will consent to nothing less, and their demands are law with the Doughfaces of the North. But that he will be elected on such an issue, we do not for one moment believe. If ever the Freemen of the North shall thus endorse, by their votes, the "Border Ruffian" outrages at Washington and in Kansas, they will be fit to change places with Southern Slaves.

HEAVY ROBBERY IN LOUISVILLE.—The Louisville Courier of Tuesday, gives the particulars of a heavy robbery committed in that city on Friday night. Capt. J. C. Dingaud, of New Orleans, who was stopping at the Galt House, in that city, was robbed of $4,600 in money. The thief, after effecting an entrance, stupified the Captain with chloroform and took the money from his person. The Captain was seriously affected by the large quantity of chloroform he had imbibed.

The robbery was effected between midnight and 4 o'clock A. M. A pocket book containing money for his travelling expenses, his gold watch and gold locket, which were placed by Capt. W. between the mattrasses, were not discovered.—The money stolen consisted of NINE $500 notes, and ONE $100 note—in all $4,600—all on New Orleans banks! This may lead to the detection of the villain, and merchants, brokers, and police officers in all sections of the Union are requested to scrutinise carefully all notes of this denomination offered them.

PUBLIC SERVICES OF THE LATE HON. JOHN M. NILES.—This gentleman, whose death has just been announced, has spent a long and useful life in the public service. He was born at Windsor, Ct., on the 20th of August, 1787, and was admitted to the bar in December, 1812. About the year 1816 he took up his residence in Hartford, and became one of the first proprietors of the Hartford Times, and continued to act as principal editor of that paper until 1820. In 1820 he was appointed Judge of the Hartford County Court, which office he held until 1829. In 1826 he represented Hartford in the Connecticut Legislature. In 1820 he was appointed Postmaster at Hartford, which he held until December, 1835, when he was appointed United States Senator, to fill a vacancy, and in the ensuing May was elected by the Legislature for the remainder of the term. In 1839 and 1840 he was supported by his party, though without success, for the office of Governor of the State. In May, 1840 he was appointed Postmaster General, and displayed a good deal of capacity and energy in the discharge of the duties of that office. In 1842 he was elected U. S. Senator for a full term.

Half-Fare to the Philadelphia National Republican Convention.

We are authorized by the Pennsylvania railroad Company to say that passengers will be carried over that road to the Philadelphia Convention at the usual (half price) excursion rates. Excursion tickets will be given between Pittsburg and Philadelphia and return, good from the 15th of June to the 25th inclusive.

We are also authorized to say that the Ohio and Pennsylvania road will do the same; and we presume that the Cleveland and Pittsburg road may be relied on for a similar arrangement.

ENTHUSIASTIC KANSAS MEETING IN JANESVILLE.—There was an immense gathering of the People of Janesville and vicinity, on Thursday evening, to hear Col. LANE of Kansas. A gentleman present estimates the number in attendance at four or five thousand. Colonel LANE's speech was eloquent and effective, and the enthusiasm of the meeting intense. Upwards of $2,600 was subscribed on the spot, a number of volunteers enrolled for Kansas, and a Committee appointed to co-operate with other Committees throughout the State, in sending aid to the beleaguered freemen of Kansas.

EDUCATIONAL CONVENTION.—We are requested by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, Mr. A. C. BARRY, to state, that an Educational Convention will be held in this City on the 15th and 16th days of July, in pursuance of a call heretofore issued by him. It is hoped that Teachers and others, interested in the cause of popular Education, will make it a point to attend and take part in the proceedings.

OUR REPRESENTATIVE IN CONGRESS.—While the constituents of Mr. WELLS are glad to see him amongst them, during the temporary practical recess of Congress, they very generally desire that he should return to his post, in season to vote for the expulsion of the ruffian BROOKS from the House of Representatives. This is no time for Northern Representatives to be either mute, or missing.

The "Chivalry" Endorses Brooks.

The Richmond Enquirer is not only the leading Democratic press in the State of Virginia, but may, without exaggeration, be justly termed the representative press of the Old Dominion and of the so called "chivalry." It faithfully reflects, no doubt, the sentiments of its party and people, and its views, therefore, upon the recent outrage in the United States Senate, derive additional importance from the quasi authority with which it speaks. We therefore copy and call the attention of all our readers to the following characteristic article from the Richmond Enquirer of Monday last:

> THE SUMNER DISCIPLINE.—THE NEEDFUL REMEDY.—A few Southern journals, affecting an exclusive refinement of feeling, or regard for the proprieties of official intercourse, unite with the Abolition papers in condemning the chastisement inflicted upon Sumner by the Hon. P. S. Brooks. We have no patience with these mealy-mouthed pharisees of the Press. Why not speak out and declare at once that you are shocked by the "brutality of a slaveholding ruffian!" It is much more manly to adopt the violent vocabulary of the Tribune, than to insinuate disapprobation in the meek accents of a conscience-smitten saint.
> In the main the press of the South applaud the conduct of Mr. Brooks, without condition or limitation. Our approbation at least is entire and unreserved. We consider the act good in conception, better in execution, and best of all in consequence. These vulgar Abolitionists in the Senate are getting above themselves. They have been humored until they forget their position.—They have grown saucy, and dare to be impudent to gentlemen! Now, they are a low, mean, scurvy set, with some little book learning, but as utterly devoid of spirit or honor as a pack of curs. Intrenched behind "privilege," they fancy they can slander the South and insult its representatives with impunity. The truth is, they have been suffered too long without collars. They must be lashed into submission. Sumner, in particular, ought to have nine-and-thirty early every morning. He is a great strapping fellow, and could stand the cowhide beautifully. Brooks frightened him, and at the first blow of the cane, he bellowed like a bull-calf. There is the blackguard Wilson, an ignorant Natick cobbler, swaggering in excess of muscle, and absolutely dying for a beating. Will not somebody take him in hand? Hale is another huge, red face, sweating scoundrel, whom some gentleman should kick and cuff until he abates something of his impudent talk.
>
> These men are perfectly abusing the people and the representatives of the South, for tyrants, robbers, ruffians, adulterers, and what not.—Shall we stand it? Can gentlemen sit still in the Senate and House of Representatives, under an incessant stream of denunciation from wretches who avail themselves of the privilege of place, to indulge their devilish passions with impunity? In the absence of an adequate law, Southern gentlemen must protect their own honors and feelings. It is an idle mockery to challenge one of these scullions. It is equally useless to attempt to disgrace them. They are insensible to shame; and can be brought to reason only by the application of cowhide or gutta percha.—Let them once understand that for every vile word spoken against the South, they will suffer so many stripes, and they will soon learn to behave themselves, like decent dogs—they can never behave like gentlemen. Mr. Brooks has initiated this salutary discipline, and he deserves applause, for the bold, judicious manner in which he chastised the scamp Sumner. It was a proper act, done at a proper time, and in the proper place. Of all the places on earth the Senate chamber, the theatre of his vituperative exploits, was the very spot where Sumner should have been made to suffer for his violation of the decencies of decorous debate, and for his brutal denunciations of a venerable statesman. It was literally and entirely proper that he should be stricken down and beaten just beside the desk against which he leaned when he fulminated his filthy utterances through the Capitol. It is idle to talk of the sanctity of the Senate chamber since it is polluted by the presence of such fellows as Wilson, and Sumner, and Wade. They have desecrated it, and cannot now fly to it as to a sanctuary from the lash of vengeance.
> "We trust other gentlemen will follow the example of Mr. Brooks, that so a curb may be imposed upon the truculence and audacity of abolition speakers. If need be, let us have a caning or cowhiding every day. If the worse come to the worse, so much the sooner, so much the better."

Comments would be wasted upon an article like the above. It is infamous, alike, in its temper and language; but is withal a faithful reflex of the "Border Ruffian" spirit, which is the animating principle of Modern Democracy. The people of the North, who favor Free Speech and the extension of Slavery, are to be treated like "a pack of curs" and "lashed into submission," while their representatives in Congress are to be bullied or beaten into silent acquiescence in all the demands and aggressions of the Slave Power. We shall see how this "regular Democratic" programme is worked out.

Meantime, in contrast with the above article from the Richmond Enquirer, the leading organ of Slave Democracy and Southern Rights, we invite attention to the following speech, delivered by CHARLES KING, President of Columbia College, at the great meeting held in the New York Tabernacle, to express the indignation felt by every respectable citizen of our commercial metropolis at the identical outrage over which the Richmond Enquirer and kindred prints rejoice with such exceeding joy:

> Mr. President and Gentlemen [Mr. King was again interrupted by three cheers]: It is not without great hesitation that in the position which I occupy, and which has necessarily separated me very much from all political meetings, that I have consented to come here to-night, and at the request of some of our friends, to utter the few sentences with which I shall trouble you. But this is not an ordinary political assembly; this is not an occasion on which any good man in whose heart beats the blood of the country dare absent himself [Cheers]. I belong to a race that had some hand in forming that Constitution, the gross outrage upon which has called you here to-night. If I have fidelity to anything, it is to that Constitution, and if my life has been devoted to any one principle more than another, it is to that of Free Thought, Free Speech, and a Free Press [Loud applause]. And when I see all these struck down by brutal, cowardly assassins [tremendous cheers]—I may not take counsel either of my position or of my years, of my grey head and my long service, to hold back and refrain from saying what is on my lips to say, and what my heart would be dastardly if it did not say.
> I scorn the act. I scorn all extenuations, and scorn especially the ignoble cause of all, Slavery. [Tremendous cheers, long continued, with waving of handkerchiefs.] I desire to refrain from using any exciting word or dwelling upon any exciting topic. I had some misgivings when I got up ["Go on, go on; give it to them"]. I feel too deeply to be quite sure that when I commit myself to utterance I shall be as discreet as I ought to be ["No danger; go on, go on."] But, gentlemen, I am here to speak the voice of New York—the voice of men who are born free and mean to die free [loud applause]—of men who claim for themselves the largest liberty of speech, and who insist upon allowing it and defending it for others ["Good, good." Loud cheers.] It has been well said by the gentleman who preceded me that the reign of force has begun, the reign of the bully, the bludgeon, ["the blackguard"] whereas it had only been the reign of Freedom, the reign of thought and the reign of patriotism. All that is overruled. This is not the first instance. This very session we have seen stricken down in the streets of Washington a man who, of all men that I know, most challenges, as I apprehend, the respect of this community for his services to the Free Press. [Immense cheering and waving of hats. Mr. King attempted to proceed, but was prevented by "Three cheers for Horace Greeley," which were given with a will]. We talk very often of high courage in military and naval acts. I know no instance of higher moral courage than that in which, taking his life in his hand, and knowing that every hour of his stay in Washington his life was in jeopardy, was evinced by Horace Greeley [Renewed cheering]. He went there to tell the truth; he did tell the truth; and he was felled there on the avenue for telling the truth. Now, Gentlemen, there are many of you who do not agree with Horace Greeley; there is no man who oftener than myself disagrees with Horace Greeley; but I do admire and respect the courage which seeks to find the truth and dares to utter it; let who may oppose [Continued applause.]
>
> And now let me say another word; I have a tenderness, I may almost say, for the Public Press. The best years of my life have been passed with the public press. I consider the vocation of an Editor—I ask no pardon of all others—the highest vocation which can be given to mortal man in a Republic [Cheers]. I consider the man that in charge of a paper honestly, boldly, and conscientiously expresses his opinion, seeking to be right, I consider that man the benefactor of his country [Applause]. Well, then, I have spoken of Horace Greeley. There is now in jeopardy at Washington, an editor whom I know well, a man who is not afraid of anything in the shape of man or beast [cheers], and that man, too, James Watson Webb, [renewed cheers]—that man there in the midst of the enemy [three cheers were given for James Watson Webb]—in the midst of those who are willing at all times to attack the weak and the undefended, will be let alone [loud applause].—But his merit will be no less. He is there in the midst of the camp of the enemy, who would willingly put him out, who would willingly assail him, but that he is a little piece of a porcupine [Applause]. Gentlemen, the Free Press cannot be trammelled. Free speech may be silenced as Sumner was silenced—by bludgeons; but if that speech of Mr. Sumner does not effect far beyond what the blows of that assassin have effected [A noise was raised by some person in the galleries, which was crowded to an alarming degree, "Put him out, put him out."] O, let him stay in here, I do not propose to detain you longer ["Go on, go on"]. I have said all that I meant to say, and more than I meant to say. I merely presented myself here in order that, so far as my name and my voice could give any influence to this meeting, I might give it. I am here with all my heart and soul and blood [Loud cheers]. I am here, pledged to whatever may be the necessary consequences of this meeting, come they when they may, or how they may. The time has come when we must talk just so, and when we must act up to our talk [Great applause]. Now all this may seem rash ["'Taint half enough"], but my daily communion is with rash, young fellows, and my duty is to restrain their rashness. And yet, I should feel myself utterly unfit for daily communion with their noble spirits, with hearts that beat to free, generous and patriotic emotions, if I could feel otherwise than as I do, and, if feeling as I do, I could fail to speak whenever there was a proper opportunity [Enthusiastic cheering].

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

Sad Casualty.

Messrs. Editors:

At Eagle, yesterday afternoon, a little boy, 3 years old, a son of widow Madden, hung himself in a swing a few feet from the house. The swing was on a small tree, and not over six feet long, and it is supposed that the child must have put his neck on the swing and turned round and hung himself. The mother was but a few feet from the child, hanging up clothes, and when she turned round, she saw the child, but it was already dead.

Yours, &c., P.

EAGLE, June 6, '56.

From the South Carolina Press.

> Here in South Carolina, a handsome sum, headed by the Governor of the State, has been subscribed, for the purpose of presenting Mr. Brooks with a splendid silver pitcher, goblet and stick, which will be conveyed to him in a few days by the hands of gentlemen delegated for that purpose. In Charleston similar testimonials have been ordered by the friends of Mr. Brooks.
> Meetings of approval and sanction will be held not only in Mr. Brooks' district, but throughout the State at large, and a general and hearty response of approval will re-echo the words "Well done," from Washington to the Rio Grande.

The South, it appears, is of one mind on this question. The North, we trust, will show an equally united front. In this plain, direct issue, for or against the Liberty of Speech and the Freedom of Debate, even Doughfaces will be ashamed to enlist under the Pro-Slavery banner.

CREDITABLE.—We are glad to see that at least one democratic paper in this State—the Watertown Democrat—speaks in justly severe terms of the recent brutal assault on Mr. Sumner. That paper says:

> Banish such a miscreant from the society of gentlemen and a seat in a house where decency and order are supposed to prevail. One such example of prompt and decided action will go far to do away with the domineering spirit of the mis-named "chivalry" of the South. These are our sentiments. Those who do not like them, can cherish their own ideas, and carry them out if they can.

HISLOP'S.—The Manitowoc Herald, in the following paragraph, exhibits a just appreciation of our friend Hislop's enterprise and usefulness:

> HISLOP'S SEED STORE MILWAUKEE.—This is one of the permanent "institutions" of Milwaukee, and is far from insignificant in usefulness and convenience. Mr. Hislop is a thorough Horticulturist, and is very industrious in procuring all the rare seeds and plants of native and foreign production. He is competent to give instructions in their cultivation, and all who wish to procure seeds or plants for usefulness or for embellishment of grounds, can obtain supplies by order from his store, together with all needful information in regard to their growth and treatment.

SUBSTANTIAL AID.—At the Kansas Meeting in Detroit last evening, where Gov. Reeder spoke, Mr. Z. Chandler pledged himself to head a subscription with $10,000 for aid to the settlers, and said that Capt. E. B. Ward would give the same amount.

Robbery and Murder in Kansas.

Lawrence has been destroyed by a troop of banditti at the order of the United States Government. The authorities furnished weapons for the work of butchery and burning. What species of men are used for this may be seen by the following letter from a member of the Land-Commission of the Turner—An Siedlungsverein—He writes:

> "Most of the members of this band wear flannel shirts, and carry bowie-knives and revolvers openly in their belts. To all appearance, however, this National Guard was not sufficiently armed, and the United States Government (Gov. Shannon, has supplied their lack by distributing among them a lot of United States rifles. The steamer on which I am at present writing took on board at Leavenworth City twenty boxes of these weapons which were sent to Gov. Shannon under the name of the Quartermaster of Fort Leavenworth, and distributed on the way. I kept a tolerably sharp look-out on this freight, and noticed that six boxes were landed at Kickapoo, four at Atchison, five at Doniphan, and five at a point in the prairie, in the Sacs and Foxes reserve. Gen. Richardson, a prominent Border Ruffian, superintended this distribution, and with the last installment he left the boat himself. In the above named places squads of thirty or forty from the Southern Companies came drunken and noisy, and tricked out in full robber costume, and took the boxes in charge with exulting yells.
>
> "When the robbers began their work, and when they were plundering the houses of peaceful settlers, driving off their cattle and destroying settlements, Marshal Donalson answered complaints that came before him in this by saying that he could not control the mob and would not be answerable for their conduct. And this rabble calls the slavebreeders and their newspapers tee "law and order party!"
>
> "Within nine days before the destruction of Lawrence sixteen Free State men were shot in the vicinity. The murderers belonging to the law and order party.
>
> "So horrible were the cruelties of the Slavery banditti toward the Free State men that the dragoons exhibited a desire to interfere, and Col. Sumner found it necessary to order them to remain in quarters.
>
> "All the Germans in the Territory go with the Free State party to a man. Herr Deitzler, who has arrested, was a German. Another German was dragged through the streets of Lawrence by the banditti and most shamefully abused."

We commend the above article, from the New York Staats Zeitung, a German Democratic paper, to the especial notice of our German fellow-citizens. It gives a graphic picture of the "Border Ruffians" and their doings, and adds the significant fact that "all the Germans in the Territory go with the Free State party to a man!" So should they in every Northern State, if they desire to save their countrymen in Kansas from outrage and oppression, and to keep that Territory from the curse of Slavery.

Aid from Massachusetts.

The Massachusetts Legislature on Friday last, took up a motion, made by C. Hale, upon Kansas affairs, and after some debate and mature reflection, on Saturday the following resolution was adopted by 183 to 91.

> Resolved, For the relief of the sons and daughters of Massachusetts in Kansas, that the sum of twenty thousand dollars be allowed and paid out of the Treasury of the Commonwealth to His Excellency the Governor, to be by him applied, in whole or in part, in such manner, not repugnant to the Constitution and laws of the United States or of this Commonwealth, as shall most effectually relieve the sufferings of the sons and daughters of Massachusetts who have emigrated to Kansas, and that the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Council, have authority to appoint such agents to disburse the said sum as may be necessary; and the agents appointed shall account only to him for the moneys by them expended. And the Governor is hereby authorized to draw his warrant accordingly.

A DISINTERESTED OPINION.—The Louisville Journal, speaking of the Sumner outrage, says:

> There were twice as many traitors in South Carolina in the days of the Revolution, as in any other State in proportion to population, and we think that her soil as a general rule grows worse men now than it did then.

BOSTON, Monday, June 2.

The Hon. Edward Everett delivered his address on Washington, in Taunton, on Friday evening last, on which occasion, after alluding to the distinguished favor with which the addresses had been received in various parts of the country, and stating that the character of Washington was the only subject which had the power to call him out from his retirement to address public audiences more frequently than is consistent with his health or the purposes of his life, he said:

> "But with the satisfaction which I feel in addressing you at this time, are mingled feelings of the profoundest anxiety and grief. A sadness, which I strive in vain to repress, overwhelms me at thought of the occurrences of the past week, and a serious apprehension forces itself upon my mind that events are even now in train, with an impulse too mighty to be resisted, which will cause our beloved country to shed tears of blood through all her borders for generations yet to come. The civil war, with its horrid train of fire and slaughter, carried on without the slightest provocation against our infant settlements of our brethern on the frontier of the Union—the worse than civil war which, after raging months unrebuked at the capital of the Union, has at length, with a lawless violence of which I know no example in the annals of Constitutional Government, stained the floor of the Senate Chamber with the blood of a defenceless man, and he a Senator from Massachusetts—Oh! my good friends, there are events which, for the good name, the peace, the safety of the country, it were well worth all the gold of California to blot the record from the past week. They sicken the heart of the patriot, of the good citizen, of the Christian; they awaken a gloomy doubt whether the toils, the sacrifices and the sufferings our fathers endured for the sake of founding a higher, a purer and freer civilization on this Western continent than the world had yet seen, have not been endured in vain. For myself, my friends, they fill me with sorrow 'too deep for tears.' I am not ashamed of the weakness, for I sorrow not for myself.
>
> "My few remaining years are running too rapidly to a close to allow me to attach much importance to anything this side of the grave which concerns me individually; but I sorrow beyond the power of words to express for the objects of affection which I shall leave behind; for my children, for my country; and God is my witness that, if by laying down my life at this hour, I could undo what has been done the last two years, beginning with the disastrous repeal of the Missouri Compromise, to embitter the different sections of country against each other, and weaken the ties which unite them, I would willingly and cheerfully make the sacrifice. Did I not think there is a healing charm in the name of Washington, that attachment and veneration for his character is almost the only kindly sentiment that pervades the whole country, and that in the contemplation of that character there is a spirit of wisdom to guide and of love to soothe and unite, I would even now throw myself upon your indulgence to excuse me from the duties of the evening."

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER.

If the French hymn of liberty, the Marseillaise, was composed under exciting circumstances, the Star Spangled Banner was inspired by events no less patriotic by our distinguished countryman, Mr. Francis Scott Key, an able and eloquent lawyer, an accomplished gentleman, a man of noble and generous impulses. During the war with the British in 1814, Mr. F. Scott Key was residing in Baltimore, and hearing of the detention of a dear and intimate friend, he started to obtain his release. He went as far as the mouth of the Patapsco river, which enters the Chesapeake Bay, and is about 85 miles north of the Potomac. Here he was arrested and carried on board a British man-of-war belonging to the British fleet and stationed opposite Fort McHenry, the bombardment of which he was compelled to witness. The English Admiral boasted before Mr. Key that he would take the Fort in a few hours, and the city of Baltimore within the two succeeding days. The bombardment continued during the day, and the whole of the following night, without making an impression either on the strength of the works or the spirit of the garrison.

Our patriotic countryman stood on the deck watching, through the smoke which sometimes obscured it, the banner of freedom waving from the fort. At length night came, and he could see it no more. Still he watched, till at length dawn began to bring the object around in distinctness. With beating heart he turned towards the fort, and there, waving in the morning breeze, high and uninjured, was the banner, with its stars and stripes, the banner of freedom and independence, then in its early days. It was at this moment of joy and triumph, that Francis Scott Key, under the influence of patriotic excitement, composed the Star Spangled Banner.

After Mr. Key had been liberated, and the British had retired from Fort McHenry, without attempting the attack of the city of Baltimore, he completed his patriotic hymn, which was enthusiastically received then, and has ever been considered as one of the national songs of our country. M'lle Parodi has sung it in most of the cities of the United States, amidst shouts of applause and enthusiasm. At Washington, Mr. Barton Key, the son of Mr. Scott Key, (who died in 1843,) was present, with many Senators and all the distinguished society of that city. When M'lle Parodi and Mme. Strakosch repeated, amidst thunders of applause and waving of handkerchiefs, this inspired verse, he was most deeply moved by the homage to the memory of his father's genius. Mr. Strakosch has arranged the Star Spangled Banner for two voices, for M'lle Parodi and Mdme. Strakosch.

Menasha Advocate Extra.

MENASHA LAND OFFICE,
MENASHA, June 4, 1856.

All sales of the public lands at this office, were closed, by telegraphic instructions from the General land office, yesterday. This order will in no wise affect any other of the current business of the office, than that of the sale and entry of lands. Pre emption proofs, we understand, will be received as usual, and plats and maps made to order at all times. Also, certificates of entry, affidavits, &c., given and taken as usual, in the regular transaction of public business. It is hoped that all the lands not selected for the Lake Superior Railroad, will be speedily restored to Market.—The feeling of the whole community is intense upon this subject, and no unreasonable or protracted delay should be tolerated by the Commissioner. We hope to see the land office again in a few weeks, move on with its accustomed activity and success.

This "closing of the Land Office" and taking all the public lands out of Market, until the Rail road Companies have made their selection, is one of the "first fruits" of Land Grant to Railroads.—The effects of this most mischievous policy are just begining to be felt. However acceptable it may be to corporations, it is disastrous to individuals and detrimental to the interests of the State.

THE MADISON JOURNAL.—Our friends of the Madison Journal, in the first number of their enlarged paper, say:

> As the only Republican press at the seat of government of the State, we should dislike, as a matter of party pride, to be surpassed in enterprise by our cotemporaries representing the opposition. We believe that in all respects our paper will compare favorably with them; and we ask our friends throughout the State to give us a helping hand in increasing our circulation, and encouraging us to additional improvements.—The Presidential campaign is now close at hand. It is important that the great issues of the contest be laid before the public, and we suggest the propriety of making up clubs for the Weekly State Journal. Our club rates are exceedingly low, and no man in the country need be without a paper when the price is only one dollar per annum.

M. & WATERTOWN R. R.—The unfinished work on this end of the Watertown extension to Columbus, is now in process of rapid completion. Mr. J. A. Farnham, the contractor for grading the four miles immediately west of the bridge, has about fifty men constantly employed, with more than twenty teams. He is to have his work finished by the first day of August next, at the very farthest. We learn that as soon as the grading is accomplished, the work of laying the ties and iron will be commenced and continued until the road will be in operation to Columbus.—Watertown Democrat.

DEATH OF C. G. SHEFFIELD.—We regret to learn that C. G. Sheffield, Esq., Type Founder, of this city, died of consumption yesterday morning. He had been confined to his room upwards of two months previous to his decease. He was originally from Columbus, Ohio, but had been for many years traveling agent of White & Co., Type Founders, New York, and had a very wide circle of acquaintances. About eight months since he started his type foundry in this city, and has done an expensive business. Had he lived, he would soon have built up a business equal to any house in New York. He leaves a wife and four children.

We understand the business will go on uninterrupted, by other parties.—Chicago Press.

Speech of John P. Hale.

Wool Circular.

OF TALLKAMPF & KITCHING.

NEW YORK, June 1, 1856.

The month of May being the one in which the attention of dealers and manufacturers is principally directed to the new clip, and also to winding up the past year's business, we have not been surprised to find a quiet state of the wool market, and even a decline of prices, but we have, however, to state that low and medium fleeces—of which our market is quite bare at present—are sought for at old rates; and, notwithstanding some grades of fleece and pulled have been disposed of at 1a2c ℔ lb below our quotations, yet we do not feel justified in altering our prices current. manufacturers are buying sparingly, as was expected under the circumstances.

Our market is now comparatively bare of fleece, but of pulled wool we have a fair stock; the receipts of the latter kind are heavier in the spring than at any other time of the year.

The accounts of the purchases of the new clip of wool are not yet of sufficient importance to speak of; but we perceive there is a feeling to pay, willingly, the prices of last year, and even an advance. We have been informed of higher prices having been obtained than those of the past year. Wool growers will do right to dispose of their clip at what they consider a fair price, and not be too obstinate, as it does not pay the farmers to hold on too long, when prices are so favorable to their produce.

Our last advices from England report an advance of ½d a3d ℔ lb. in the auction sales in London, just commenced.

CHILLS AND FEVER.

TO THOSE who are afflicted with this disagreeable and baffling malady, we would state, that after years of hitherto unavailing research, a medicine has been discovered which will, in every case, effect a certain and permanent cure of this dreaded disease. It is not a quack nostrum prepared to extract money from sufferers, for the proprietor offers to refund the money if a cure is not effected after following the directions. He is assured by the evidence of hundreds of cures which they have effected, that this medicine is in reality the remedy so long desired in the Western country. This valuable medicine is prepared in the form of a pill, from the bark of a shrub, which has proved to be a perfect antidote to Malaria. They are simple and plain in their nature, powerful and active in their operation, and perfectly harmless to the system, having no other than a specific effect upon the disease which is truly wonderful. Some persons have stated that these pills must contain arsenic, or some powerful mineral, owing to their quick effect in curing this disease. The proprietor would state that he will pay one thousand dollars to any chemist who will find one particle of mineral in this composition.

Certificates of cure from persons of the highest respectability can be obtained by calling at the Drug Store of HENRY FESS, JR., No. 195 East Water street.

N. B. One great recommendation for these pills are, that they only require about five to effect a cure. Enquire for THAYER'S OMEGA PILL, for the immediate cure of chills and fever or intermittent fevers of every description. Prepared and sold wholesale and retail by FRED. W. THAYER, 297 Washington street, Boston.

THE ONLY MEDAL AWARDED
BY THE NEW YORK EXHIBITION TO THE ENGlish or Foreign Sauce Manufacturers, has been obtained, amongst numerous competitors, by LEA & PERRINS, for their
whereby further testimony is afforded of its being the best Sauce extent.

The celebrity of this Sauce has extended to every quarter of the globe, and its efficacy in promoting the general health, is becoming daily more observed and acknowledged.

In the United States it is held to be the most agreeable condiment, and is esteemed for its tonic and invigorating properties, its habitual use enabling the stomach to digest the food.

On the Continent of Europe, these qualities have been testified to by a gentleman, who writes to LEA & PERRINS thus: "I have carried a bottle of your Worcestershire Sauce in a tour I have just completed through Spain and Portugal, and believe I owe my present state of health to its use; your Sauce is stomachic, and I think medicinal. I can, with truth, say there is nothing in a traveller's baggage so essential to the comfort, at least in these countries, as your Sauce."

In India, also, where it is found at the mess of every regiment, a medical gentleman writes from Madras to his brother in the same profession at Worcester, in the following terms: "Tell Lea & Perrins that their Sauce is highly approved in India, and that it is, in my opinion, the most palatable, as well as the most wholesome, Sauce made."

This Sauce is suitable for every variety of dish, and the universal demand which its excellence has created has ed to many imitations being offered to the public, under a variety of names, but the genuine may be known by the names of "LEA & PERRINS" being impressed upon the patent metallic capsules, or patent glass stoppor of the bottle, as well as the labels and wrapper.

☞ THE IMMENSE MASS OF TESTIMONY IN favor of Hoofland's German Bitters, convinces us that the article is all it is represented to be, and in consequence we advise a trial of it by those afflicted with diseases for which it is recommended.

R. CHATFIELD, Esq., said:

LOWELL, Dodge Co., Wis., Nov. 1, 1851.—"Over a year ago I sent some money to you from Canada, and received some of your German Bitters, which I used and found great relief from. My health has improved to such a degree, that I am again able to attend to my business. A large number of the dispeptics in this neighborhood have had to send to Milwaukee for the medicine. An agent here could sell large quantities, as I know it to be a sure cure."

Samuel Moore, Platteville, Wis.; James L. Manville, Jefferson, Wis.; Holden, Kemp & Co., Janesville, Wis.; and others in that State, have also expressed their great confidence in the virtues of the Bitters. See advertisement.

A HUMAN LIFE SAVED.
DOWAGIAC, Mich., March 11, 1856.

J. A. RHODES, Esq:—Dear Sir:—As I took your medicine on consignment, "no cure, no pay," I take pleasure in stating its effects as reported to me by three brothers who live in this place, and their testimony is a fair specimen of all I have received:

W. S. CONKLIN told me—"I had taken nine bottles of Christie's Ague Balsam, and continually run down while using it until my lungs and liver were congested to that degree that blood discharged from my mouth and bowels, so that all thought it impossible for me to live through another chill. The doctors, too, did all they could for me, but thought I must die. Nothing did me any good until I got Rhodes' Fever and Ague Cure, which at once relieved me of the distress and nausea at my stomach and pain in my head and bowels, and produced a permanent cure in a short time."

H. M. CONKLIN says:—"I had been taking medicine of as good a doctor as we have in our county, and taken any quantity of quinine and specifics without any good result, from 25th August to 17th December. But seeing how nicely it operated on my brother, I got a bottle of RHODES' FEVER AND AGUE CURE, which effected a permanent cure by using two-thirds of a bottle."

S. M. CONKLIN was not here, but both the other brothers say his case was the same as H. M.'s. I sold the medicine to both the same day, and the cure was as speedy from the same small quantity, and I might so specify.

Yours with respect, A. HUNTINGTON.

The above speaks for itself. Good proof as it is, it is of no better tenor than the vast number of like certificates I have already published, and the still greater amount that is continually pouring in to me.

One thing more. Last year I had occasion to caution the public in these words:

"I notice one firm who have taken one of my general circulars, substituted the name of their nostrum for my medicine, and then with brazen impudence end their pamphlet with the exclamation, 'Let the proprietors of any other medicine say as much if he dare,' &c."

Now I take pleasure in saying that the Caution referred to the same "Dr. Christie's Ague Balsam" that is mentioned in the above certificate.

There are several other industrious people who are applying to their poisonous trash all that I publish about my Fever and Ague Cure, or Antidote to Malaria, except the Certificates of Cures, and the certificate of the celebrated Chemist, Dr. James R. Chilton, of N. Y., in favor of its HARMLESS CHARACTER, which is attached to every bottle. These will always serve to distinguish my medicine from imitations.

Fever and Ague—an Infallible Cure.

WE DEFY THE WORLD to produce any medicine which does not contain Quinine, Arsenic, Mercury or any noxious or deadly compound, to cure this annoying disease so effectually as Carter's Spanish Mixture. While it contains none of the above named dangerous articles, yet it possesses a power in relieving and curing Fever and Ague which cannot be approached by any of them separately or in combination. It acts specifically on the Liver, purifies the Blood, opens the pores of the Skin, and assists nature to expel from the system the seeds of disease, or what is as bad, the remains of the Mineral Drugs, which clog and finally destroy the constitution.

See the cure of Mr. Longden of Virginia. He had chills twice a day for 3 years, nothing would relieve him until he tried Carter's Spanish Mixture, only 3 bottles of which effectually restored him to health, nor has he had a return of the disease since. may20d1m

Caution to Western Merchants.
WOLFE'S
SCHEIDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS.

THIS CELEBRATED MEDICINAL BEVERAGE IS manufactured at the manufactory of the undersigned, at Scheidam, Holland. He is the sole importer, as well as the exclusive manufacturer of the article, and no preparation bearing the name of "Schnapps," that is not procured either from his establishment in New York, or from his agents in other cities, is genuine and reliable.

It is made from barley of the finest quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the Aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced upon the stomach and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers, new settlers, and all unacclimated persons in the West, the South and South-west are peculiarly liable—the Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps will be found absolutely infallible; while in cases of dropsy, obstruction of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one dozen, with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac-simile of his signature on the label. For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants
UDOLPHO WOLFE,
Nos. 18, 20 and 22 Beaver Street, New York.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

Since the introduction of my Scheidam Schnapps into the United States, a number of Liquor Mixers in New York, Boston and Philadelphia have commenced putting up mixed and poison Gin, and calling it Schnapps; that name belongs expressly to my article, all others are counterfeits and impositions on the public.

Numerous complaints are made of persons who keep Bars on Steamboats and in Hotels, who fill my empty bottles with common Gin, and sell it to the unsuspecting for my SCHEIDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS. I would therefore advise all who drink the Schnapps at such places, to MARK THE APPEARANCE OF THE BOTTLE; and if the outside wrapper or label should be defaced, to REFUSE TO DRINK unless A FRESH BOTTLE IS OPENED.

POLICE COURT, JUNE 6.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE.

Thomas Green, drunk and disorderly, fined $3. Wm. F. Holbcamp was tried, and convicted of an assault and battery upon Henry Saulen, and fined $5 and costs.—Messrs. Butler & Bower, charged, upon a city complaint, with violating the ordinance relating to Hackney Coaches, &c., came up; the case, after some consultation, was set down for this morning, at 9 o'clock. John Hilgener, charged with being disorderly, case dismissed upon payment of costs.

PARODI'S CONCERT.—We need hardly remind our readers that PARODI gives a grand Concert in this city on Monday evening next, assisted by Madame STRAKOSCH, and M. MAURICE STRAKOSCH. As they will give but one Concert here (leaving for Madison Tuesday morning) the opportunity will doubtless be improved to the full by our music-loving public. Concert Hall will be arranged for the occasion and put in perfect order, and all the seats will be numbered. The sale of tickets commences to-day at Professor HEMPSTED's Music Store, and seats may be secured without extra charge. PARODI has met with unexampled success, during the past year, in these Concerts. The programme for Monday abounds in musical gems, and she will sing, in compliment to her American auditors, the "Star Spangled Banner."

NEW MUSIC.—We have just received from G. B. DEMAREST, Publisher and Music Dealer 333 Broadway, New York, the following new and beautiful pieces of music: Hiawatha Schottisch, price 25 cents; Ladies' Own Polka, 30 cents; Courting in Connecticut, Somebody's Waiting for Somebody, and We'll all Meet Again in the Morning, 25 cents each. Mr. DEMAREST will send by mail, free of postage, the above pieces for $1,00, or one at the marked price on receipt of money. Catalogues sent free of postage. All orders must be sent to G. B. DEMAREST, 333 Broadway, N. Y.

EAST WATER STREET BLOCKADED.—East Water Street, the main business thoroughfare of our city, has been completely blockaded for two days past, by an old frame building in process of removal to some outside lot. The obstruction of the street, for such a purpose, is an imposition upon the public, and should not be tolerated by our city authorities.

THEATRE—LAST NIGHT BUT ONE.—There was a full house at the Theatre, last evening, on the occasion of Leffingwell's benefit, and the performances were received with great applause. The bill for to-night includes three pieces, "The Robber's Wife," "Bamboozling," and "The Eton Boy." The season closes on Tuesday.

CHRISTY'S MINSTRELS.—These Minstrels had another good audience, last evening, and performed to the entire satisfaction of all present. They give a third and last entertainment to-night, with a rich bill.

BOOT CRIMPING MACHINE.—A newly patented Boot Crimping Machine, that will crimp by one stroke of a lever the hardest Calcutta Kip, Morocco or Calf Skin, boot front, can be seen at the Eastern Hotel, opposite Kellogg & Strong's Pier. It will crimp a boot in less than a minute, and can be worked by a boy.

FOR COLLINGWOOD.—The steamer Niagara will leave this port for Collingwood to-morrow morning, at 8 o'clock. L. D. JENCKS, on Huron Street, next east of Main, is the Agent. This is a favorite route for travelers bound East.

WELCOME, THOU STRANGER, TO THE LIGHT OF DAY!—The natural surface of the yard behind the Police Court, is, for the first time in three years, visible. The owner has had it cleaned, and the effects of the cleaning, have already made themselves manifest, by the purer atmosphere circulating through the Police Court.

LATE NEW YORK PAPERS.—We are indebted to Mr. THOS. BOYLE, of the News Depot on East Water St., for New York papers of Wednesday morning last.

I shall continue to publish a weekly report of sales as heretofore, and would recommend all who are interested in Real Estate, to take the paper containing my said report, and file the same, by which means they will always be familiar with, and have a correct list of all transactions in this line of business. My report is got up with the greatest possible care, and is therefore correct and reliable in every item. W. LAIDLAW.

City Land Office.

TWO HUNDRED desirable and valuable Lots to be sold in the First Ward, City of Milwaukee. On Wednesday morning, June 18, at 10 o'clock, I will sell to the highest bidder, on the easiest terms property has ever been sold, all of that desirable plat of Murray's Addition, containing two hundred beautiful lots. The said Addition joins on the Lockwood and Glidden's Addition, and joins also the city property which is to be appropriated for a City Park. The lots are all very beautiful, high, and covered over with elm and maple groves; they are one mile this side the Light House. The Plank Avenues are to run through them, in fact it is the most desirable property to make investments in of any property that I have ever sold. The lots are of a good size, forty feet front, one hundred and twenty feet deep, with alley's in the rear. You must all agree with me when I say that the First Ward has the pre eminence over all other wards for beautiful and private residences. The lots in Murray's Addition will command as high price in five years as lots do now in Astor, Marshall, Cass and Van Buren streets. There is no reason why they should not; our city is bound to go ahead, she is bound to have a population of one hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants, and the modern style of houses which are now going up in Lockwood & Glidden's Addition, with the various Parks around, certainly must make lots in Murray's Addition desirable and valuable. At all events there is no great risk to run. The terms of sale are very easy. The lots will sell low, affording an opportunity to all classes to secure them a home, and when once a home is obtained it never can be taken away, no matter what misfortunes may occur; for our laws are made to protect the widows and orphans, and the unfortunate.—Terms of sale will be one fifth down, balance in 1, 2, 3 and 4 years with 7 per cent interest. The best title in the world. Mr. Murray gets it from Government. I will have one thousand Lithographic maps of said Addition in a few days, which I will give to all who wish one, if they will call at my store

Special Despatch to the Daily Sentinel.

BUCHANAN NOMINATED!

NEW YORK, June 6.

BUCHANAN nominated for President, on seventeenth ballot, almost unanimously.

F. A. A.

CINCINNATI, June 6.

Sixteenth ballot stood, Buchanan 168, Douglas 122, Cass 6. Richardson presented a telegraphic despatch from Douglas, offering to withdraw for sake of harmony. New Hampshire virtually withdrew Pierce, leading off for Douglas, as next best representative of Democratic principles.—Buchanan nominated on the 17th ballot.

F. A. A.

Reported for the Daily Sentinel.

SIX O'CLOCK REPORT.

CINCINNATI, June 6th.

FIFTH DAY.—Convention called to order at 10 A. M. When Maine was called, her vote was cast 7 for Buchanan, 1 for Pierce. Hibbard of N. H. said that having thus far supported Pierce, the vote would now be cast for that statesman who represented the present Administration—Stephen A. Douglas.

North Carolina led off on same track for the South, followed by South Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi, Florida and Texas.

Tennessee voted 12 for Buchanan. Pierce ran down to three votes. New York Softs went over to Douglas. On 16th ballot Maine concentrated on Buchanan, Ohio gave him two more. Kentucky cast all her vote for Douglas.

After the announcement of the result, Preston of K'y said he had stood firmly by Douglas to this point, but felt confident that the sense of the Convention demanded James Buchanan.

Immense disorder and cries of "No! No!" He was confident his friend Douglas would best consult his own wishes by yielding at once and cheerfully. (Cries for Illinois to speak.)

Richardson of Illinois said he had his duty to perform, without advising any one else. (Cries of "don't withdraw him!")

He read a dispatch from Douglas, stating that from accounts the continuance of his name would disturb the harmony of the Convention, and he withdrew for either Pierce or Buchanan.

Gov. Seymour rose and tried to speak, but was for some time prevented by the uproar. He said the New York delegation had adhered to Pierce as long as he had a vote, and then gone for Douglas. For himself and the Softs, they desired to harmonize the Convention. [Applause.]

The 17th ballot was taken. Every delegate who rose had something to say had something to say in explanation. Mr. Swallow, for the Softs, said they did not wish to continue the present factious state of things in N. Y. and cast 18 votes for Buchanan.

As the balloting commenced Capt. Rynder's gun began to roar, and the Convention was in the wildest excitement. Every State gave a plumper for Buchanan, South Carolina said they came here to support the candidate who was truest to the Union and the Constitution; so they had supported Pierce and Douglas, and now voted for Buchanan.

(Here the storm cut off the report.)

THREE P. M. REPORT.

Pro-Slavery Convention.

CINCINNATI, June 5.

The Convention assembled at 10 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Stevens of Kentucky, rose to make a report from the Committee on Credentials. The Committee had not agreed, but representing as he did the majority, he was ready to read their report, if the Convention pleased. He then read the report and preamble as modified—recognized the Softs as a regular organized portion of the Democratic party and the Hards as an organized body.

Resolved, That the two sections be now consolidated; that the Softs have 44 delegates and the Hards 25, and that the minority should not be overridden by the majority; also,

Resolved, That delegates be allowed to register their votes on the platform.

He trusted no dissensions would come into the Convention, but that the report would be unanimously adopted.

Very slight applause followed.

Mr. Bayard of Delaware, made a minority report in favor of admitting both delegations to equal representations. (Great applause.) This report regards the Hards as the regular Democracy, and the Softs as the seceders and with a resolution to admit 35 delegates from each section, and allowed the delegation one hour to report their selections, the two delegations to vote separately.

The majority report was rejected and the minority dividing the delegation equally between the Hards and Softs was adopted.

The Greatest Chance Yet!

HEAVY TIMBER LANDS AND WATER POWER for sale or exchange for city property. Any man who has energy enough to undertake the management of a money making business, will here meet with an opportunity but rarely offered. I will sell 360 acres of heavy timber land 30 miles from this city, on the La Crosse Railroad, and near a Depot. There is a river running through the land with a fall of 13 feet, which if improved will constitute a water power of the very best description. The dam can be built at a very small cost.—The timber is all hard, and whoever undertakes to erect a saw mill on this property, to furnish hard lumber for this market, by availing himself said Railroad to haul it into the city, will secure to himself in a couple of years an independency. Lumber is a cash article, the demand is far exceeding the supply, and is increasing daily. I will sell this land at a bargain, or exchange for city property.

There are on said farm one frame house, one log house, one large frame barn and any number of sheds, &c., a fine orchard, beautiful springs and a running stream with a considerable fall, the dam is built and a large portion of timber collected on the spot for the erection of a mill, which in that neighborhood would prove a largely paying investment. The property is owned jointly by two parties who are desirous of dividing and settling up their joint interests, and for this reason offers a rare chance for an enterprising man to make a good strike.

The Past.

Weep not for what is past,
With vain and fruitless tears,
But husband well thy strength,
To serve the coming years;
In noble deeds, not idle grief,
Let the true soul find relief.

Mourn not for what is past,
Through every passing day,
Some pathway may disclose
Where thou hast gone astray;
Tears will but clog thy feeble sight,
Not guide to a way of right.

Weep not for what is past;
Not tears of blood will bring
One wasted moment back,
Or stay time's rapid wing;
Pour not thy soul's best life away—
Begin anew to live—to-day.

* * * * * *

The past—that narrow space
Is nothing now to thee,
Poor prisoner of time,
Yet in thine infancy;
The soul should earthly thrall despise,
The future hath no boundaries.

THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE MEDICAL MAN.—At the dinner of the Massachusetts Medical Society, at the Revere House, Dr. O. W. Holmes spoke of the responsibilities of the Medical Man in the following terms:

"Look into the chamber where our fellow-citizen, struck down without warning by the hand of brutal violence, lies prostrate, and think what fearful issues hang on the skill or incompetence of those who have his precious life in charge.—One little error, and the ignis sacer, the fiery plague of the wounded, spreads its angry blush over the surface, and fever and delirium are but the preludes of deadlier symptoms. One slight neglect, and the brain, oppressed with the products of disease, grows dreamy, and then drowsy, its fine energies are palsied, and too soon the heart that filled it with generous blood, is still forever. It took but a little scratch from a glass broken at his daughter's wedding, to snatch from life the great anatomist and surgeon, Spigelius, almost at the very age of him for whose recovery we look not without anxious solicitude.

At such an hour as this more than any other, we feel the dignity, the awful responsibility of the healing art. Let but that life be sacrificed and left unavenged, and the wounds of that defenceless head, like the foul witch's blow on her enchanted image, are repeated on the radiant forehead of Liberty herself, and flaw the golden circlet we had vainly written with the sacred name of Union.

Dii, prohibite minas. Dii, talem avertito casum!

I give you, Mr. President,

The Surgeons of the City of Washington—God grant them wisdom! for they are dressing the wounds of a mighty empire, and of uncounted generations!"

F. M. LANE'S
PERMANENT GLOSS PAINT.

Important Improvement in Painting!

A PERMANENT GLOSS PAINT for interior work has long been a desideratum. All paints prepared from Linseed Oil, will rapidly turn from the lightest and most opposite tints to the yellow color of the oil itself; the change being the more rapid as the paint is excluded from the full light of day.

The subscriber, after a sufficiently long experience in its use, can recommend it as the only Gloss Paint in which this important defect is effectually remedied. This beautiful paint can be applied of any color, from the purest white, resembling enamel or porcelain, to all the different varieties of tints, suitable for private dwellings, Churches, Hotels, &c., whilst in brilliancy and richness of surface it surpasses all other paints; it possesses superior advantages in retaining permanently even the most delicate colors with which it is combined.

Also, Plain and Ornamental Painting, decoration of Private Dwellings, Churches, &c., Sign and Fancy Painting.

MEDICAL.

HELMBOLD'S GENUINE PREPARATIONS

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED
Compound Fluid Extract Buchu.

A CERTAIN, safe, and effectual remedy for Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Obstructions, Female Complaints, and all Diseases of the Sexual Organs, whether in Male or Female, from whatever cause they may have originated, and no matter of how long standing.

This popular and specific remedy is now offered to the afflicted, and guaranteed to cure all the above complaints. It searches out the very roots of the diseases, driving out all the diseased fluids of the body, thus removing the cause and rendering the cure certain and permanent.

This medicine allays pain and inflammation, which other remedies invariably cause, and can be taken with less trouble and exposure to patients. This infallible remedy has saved thousands from the hands of merciless quacks, if not from premature graves. In cases of infections, the Compound Buchu is the only article worthy of the least confidence of the afflicted in performing safe cures. It contains no narcotic, or other injurious drug, but is purely VEGETABLE COMPOSITION. It is very agreeable to the taste, creates no perceptible odor, and may be taken by persons of either sex, without hindrance from business or medical advice, as plain directions for use accompany the medicine. Reader, if you have any of the above complaints, do not neglect them; DELAYS ARE DANGEROUS. With this medicine you can cure yourself, and thus prevent all exposure.

Truth must and will prevail. This medicine speedily and effectually cures the most virulent form of secret diseases, and eradicates every particle of infectuous matter from the system, restoring the patient to a perfect state of health and purity. And as a medicine which must benefit everybody, from the simply delicate to the confined and despairing invalid, no equal is to be found, it acting both as a cure and preventive of any of the above ailments.

Compound Fluid Extract of SARSAPARILLA,

For purifying the Blood, removing all diseases arising from excess of Mercury, exposure and imprudence of life, chronic constitutional disease, arising from an impure state of the Blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Tetter, Pimples on the Face, and all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin.

It is gratifying to the proprietor of these medicines to be able to state that it is now nearly three years since they were first introduced, during which time they have been extensively used in various parts of the United States, and have given to patient and practitioner the highest degree of satisfaction in the various cases in which they have been employed; whether in town, country, hospital, or private practice, they have invariably given the most decided and unequivocal satisfaction, and produced the most salutary and beneficial effects. Numerous letters have been received from the most distinguished physicians in the country, and from the professors of several medical colleges, recommending in the highest terms the value of these medicines and their superiority over all other preparations for such complaints as the proprietor recommends. Numerous preparations of Sarsaparilla and of Buchu, and various modes of preparing them have been given, all of which of course will differ according to the mode of preparation which each individual may adopt.

These medicines require considerable care in the preparation and the employment of different menstrua in successive operation to take up the extractive matters, and in consequence, are most frequently improperly made, and not unfrequently much impaired, if not rendered totally inert, by the injudicious and unskillful management of those unacquainted with pharmaceutical preparations.—It is, therefore, of the highest consideration and importance to the public and to the faculty that there should be standard preparations of uniform strength and possessing the most advantages. To effect this and obviate the evil alluded to, I have made a number of experiments to ascertain the most effectual mode of extracting the virtues of the Sarsaparilla and Buchu, and to discover the most eligible form for their exhibition. The experiments have resulted most favorably, and it is with much pleasure I now offer to the public and the faculty my Compound Fluid Extracts, which contain all the virtues of the articles they are represented to be made from in a highly concentrated form, and are the most active preparations which can be made. Two tablespoonfuls of the Extract Sarsaparilla added to a pint of water, is equal to the Lisbon diet drink, and one [illegible] gth, one gallon of Syrup Sarsa [illegible] usually made.

PRICES.

Fluid Extract Buchu, $1 per bottle or 6 for $5

Certificates of cures and recommendations from distinguished professors and physicians will accompany each preparation. Prepared and sold by

CANKER & SALT RHEUM SYRUP & CERATE.

IT IS AN UNDISPUTABLE FACT THAT the above medicines are the only infallible remedies now before the public for cutaneous Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Sore Legs, Ulcers, Old Fever Sores, Scald Head, Scorbutic Eruptions, &c., &c.

Cases that the most eminent Physicians have despaired of relieving, immediately yielded to their active powers, and when used in accordance with the printed directions, which accompany each bottle, the Syrup and Cerate combined eradicates any of the above named diseases, and leaves the sufferer without a blemish. These medicines are too well known to require anything more than a plain statement of facts. The joyful intelligence is aching us daily from East, West, North and South, of wonderful cures they are preforming.

See what is said by those who have used these medicines:

The Rev. Samuel Henry, of Palmer, Mass., says, "they have done me more good than all the other medicines I have used for Erysipelas;"

Capt. William Vail, of the steamer Granite State, says: "they have cured my daughter of Salt Rheum and Scald Head of six years' standing. She was literally covered with sores; is now perfectly cured by the use of the Syrup and Cerate."

Dr. A. J. Johnson, of North Wardsboro, Vt., says, "a Scrofulous disease of the hip joint, and Scald Head in the same child, have been cured by the Syrup and Cerate."

Rev. August Bolles says "it has cured the Salt Rheum in my leg."

J. Hatfield Frazer, Esq., editor of the Somerset Whig, Somerville, N. J., says "my mother has been completely cured of a severe case of Tetter of long standing, that had defied the skill of the best Physicians."

Hon. Joel Loomis, of East Lyme, Conn., says, "I was completely cured of Erysipelas in my legs, after a council of the best Physicians in the County had pronounced the disease incurable, (at my age which was seventy-eight years, but Weaver's Syrup and Cerate did the work at once."

Elias Latham, Esq., of Orient, Long Island, N. Y., says, "I hardly know how to express my gratitude to you and your medicines. I have been afflicted for more than thirty years with Salt Rheum in its worst form. I tried several Physicians in New York, Brooklyn and Greenport. I have dieted and taken medicines enough to float a pretty large boat, but they did me no good. I have taken your medicines one year, and am now able to work and sleep without an ache or a pain, and my neighbors say I am the sprightliest man on the Island."

The Rev. J. S. Swan, of New London, says, I have used the Syrup and Cerate in my family for more than a year and I consider it completely adapted to sustain the high reputation that is claimed for it. I have seen it used in number of cases for Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, with entire success.

Ask Seth Prisbery, of Taunton, Mass. what the medicines will do; ask William Barber, of Three Mile Bay, Jeff Co., N. Y., what the syrup has done for him; ask G. F. & W. H. Boynton, of Perkinsville, Vt.; ask F. L. Kent, of Chicago, Ill; ask Martha Cottle, of Martha's Vineyard, Mass; ask Wm F. Kenhle, or Wm P. Benjamin, Esqs., of New London; ask Dr. H. M. Murdock, of Pulaski, N. Y; ask J. C Smith, of Brooklyn N. Y., who was cured of Scrofula, after losing his leg by the disease, and suffering for years, has been perfectly cured by the use of the Syrup & Cerate; ask Curtis Burrough, of Shelby, N. Y., who has been cured of a severe case of Salt Rheum; ask Chas. Akin of Hume, N. Y., what the Syrup and Cerate will do for sore legs; ask Winslow and Slatter, Merchants, Virgil, N. Y. what it will do for Fever Sores. In a word, ask every body who has ever tried these wonderful medicines, and the answer will be the same—THEY CURE.

READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELVE

PROFESSOR WOOD'S Hair Restorative is no doubt the most wonderful discovery of this age of progress, for it will restore, permanently, grey hair to its original color, cover the head of the bald with a most luxuriant growth, remove at once all dandruff and itching, cure all Scrofula and other cutaneous eruptions, such as scald head, &c. It will cure as if by magic, nervous or periodical headache, make the hair soft, glossy, and wavy, and preserve the color perfectly, and the hair from falling to extreme old age. We could give the testimony of more than one hundred thousand to the truth of every word we have written. See circular and the following:

CARLYLE, Ill., June 28, 1855.

I have used Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, and have admitted its wonderful effect. My hair was becoming, as I thought prematurely grey; but by the use of his Restorative it has resumed its original color, and I have no doubt permanently so.

SIDNEY BREESE,
Ex-Senator United States.

VINCENNES, Ind., June 10, 1853.

Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir—As you are about to manufacture extensively and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it; that I have for several years been in the habit of using other hair restoratives, and that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head from dandruff, and with one month's proper use will restore any person's hair to the original youthful color and texture, giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance, and all this without discoloring the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would therefore recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture of hair.

Respectfully yours,
WILSON KING

A gentleman of Boston writes to his friends in New Bedford, thus

To your inquiries I would reply that when I first commenced using Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, my hair was almost white, and had been so for the last ten years and it was very thin on the top of my head, and very loose and pulled out freely; but I found that before I had used the second bottle up (which was eight weeks) my hair was entirely changed to its original color (light brown) and is now free from dandruff and quite moist. I have had my hair cut five or six times since the change, and have never seen anything like white hair starting from the roots, and it is now as thick as it ever was, and does not come out at all. It has proved in my case all that I could wish or ask.

Yours, &c., ———.
July 1, 1854.

GARDNER, Me., June 22, 1855.

Mr. Dyer: Dear Sir—I have used two bottles of Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the hair. Before using it, I was as grey as a man of seventy. My hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.

Yours, &c.,
DANIEL N. MURPHY.

ST. LOUIS, March 7, 1854.

Prof. Wood:—My hair commenced falling off some three or four years since, and continued to do so until I became quite bald. I tried all the popular medicines of the day, but to no effect. At last I was induced to try your celebrated Hair Restorative, and am happy to say it is doing wonders. I have now a fine growth of young hair, and cheerfully recommend its use to all similarly afflicted.

A. C. WILLIAMSON,
183 Second Street.

ST. LOUIS, June 29, 1856.

Prof. Wood:—As you are about to prepare and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, and as you request my opinion of it, I will state that my hair was, a few months ago, very grey; and after using two bottles of your Hair Restorative, it assumed its original color, and since its application all dandruff has disappeared from my head, and I have been troubled with no disagreeable itching of the scalp. I am satisfied those who use it will not regret it, as it gives the appearance of having been recently oiled. I am prepared, therefore, to recommend its use to all who are desirous of having a beautiful head of hair.

I am, sir, yours, &c.,

The proprietor in calling the attention of the public to this preparation, does so with a feeling of the utmost confidence in its virtues and adaptation to the diseases for which it is recommended.

It is no new and untried article, but one that has stood the test of a ten year's trial before the American people, and its reputation and sale is unrivaled by any similar preparations extent. The testimony in its favor given by the most prominent and well known Physicians and individuals in all parts of the country is immense, and a careful perusal of the Almanac, published annually by the proprietor, and to be had gratis of any of his Agents, can not but satisfy the most skeptical that this remedy is really deserving the great celebrity it has obtained.
